Cover illustration by: Tim Baron Participant Manual for The Coaching Workshop for Christian Leaders. Eminent evangelical theologian provides a basic introduction to the faith that traces the story of redemption through the Bible. It's not uncommon for Christian leaders to focus on developing and pouring into others. While this is noble, the Christian leader must pause to create intentional moments that allow God to pour into them. Otherwise, stress, fatigue, and weariness become healthy portions along the journey of life. Daily devotions help to avoid this pitfall and ensures that the Christian leader remains infused with the strength needed to carry out God-given assignments. DIG DEEP is a daily guide that positions the Christian leader to maximize quality time with God. Each devotion affords the reader the opportunity to reflect on Christian leadership principles from a Biblical perspective. This 365-day devotional is sure to fan the flames of your passion for Effective Christian Leadership. The reader will discover a successful approach to maintaining a connection with God while leading God's people. Have you considered your calling in ministry or do you know your calling of service for the Lord God? As the bishop of your own soul, make your calling and election known before men in the life you live unto our Father and Lord Jesus Christ. It is wise for all that read this book to observe the godly correlation of Jesus and those whom he covenants with throughout all ministries. As you conclude your study of "Bishop of Pastoral Epistles," (men and women of God), you may not have all the answers, but you will be well on your way in nurturing the covenant of God to include being fishers and shepherds of men. Throughout the Pastoral Epistles, Paul's messages are precise; they admonish, they encourage and exhort. His charges are to glorify God, to fight, and to study. His objective is to persuade all to lead a godly life in Christ Jesus. The apostolic message comes through clear that we who are in Christ Jesus and Today's Christian Ministry must abide faithfully. As you study the Pastoral epistles with regards to "Today's Christian Ministries" you will sharpen your ministry, leadership skills and be equipped to govern the affairs as never before in the house of God. Make this your personal study to enhance and build your leadership team. This material will certainly inspire and edify your Bible Studies and group meetings. In this study you will learn how Paul sought to establish, comfort, and solidify the foundation of the leadership ministry within the Church. You will explore the duties of the leadership ministries as it is given to you to glorify God. You will learn what it means to glorify God through your ministry in this study. Whose duty is it to warn the Church and what does the Christian ministry warn the Church about? Furthermore, This study examines the establishment of Christian ministry disciplines, church structure and government. This is an impressive study that considers the prerequisites of Christian ministries from the bishop all the way down to the deacon and fellow worshipers. You will be overjoyed to learn the first order of business, how to set the church in order under the apostolic counsel and how exhortation can bring good works. Every ministry is important and every position in the Christian ministry is just as important. The leader guide provides two kinds of information: (1) suggestions for weekly group sessions; (2) information to enhance leadership skills, to support group building and maintenance, and to make effective use of the CHRISTIAN BELIEVER components. A one-page session plan for each of the thirty weeks follows a set procedure with an amount of time indicated for each step. Each session plan provides guidance for group activities that make use of the daily preparation members have made, and questions for discussion. Group activities are designed to focus on content and help persons connect Scripture, doctrine, believing, and living. The leader guide assumes that: The leader makes the same preparation for the weekly group session as the other members of the group. Study and discussion in the weekly session is done mainly in small groups. The leader both guides the process and participates with other group members in the small-group study and discussion. The leader is not an information-giver or lecturer. The leader and the group members have access to the same content for study and discussion—the assigned Scripture, selections from the book of Readings, the study manual, and the video presentations. A study of CHRISTIAN BELIEVER can renew lives and congregations. This short volume is a plea for Christians to rethink their point and purpose in light of larger cultural changes and a crisis in leadership. Foss's model of moving from issues into conversation and then into compassion is a blueprint for new leadership. EVANGELISM MANUAL This manual exemplifies the most effective methods of evangelism. It also provides many strategic plans and guidelines for effective evangelism. All believers, particularly those who aspire to be in leadership or are currently in ministry should own this evangelism manual. This manual is a much-needed resource in the field of evangelistic outreach. It seeks to give practical training and equipping to those who wish to fulfill the call of the Great Commission. The manual is useful for teaching, training, witnessing, follow-up discipleship, launching your own ministry, and even for acquiring personal knowledge of evangelism. A comprehensive Manual for all Christian leaders and future leaders: To teach the essential leadership skills, to help individuals have personal relationship with God and to build leadership confidence. The author goes to the Biblical roots of being a leader in the Church. His thesis is that all Christians are "redeemed to Serve" and some are "Ordained to Lead." The book contains many practical helps for the organization and operation of churches. Primary Source Readings in Christian Morality presents the living words of the Catholic Church and the wisdom of everyday people addressing the moral issues that impact our lives. One goal of Primary Source Readings in Christian Morality is to help students realize the connection between behavior and character. Additionally, the hope is that students will uncover that the road to authentic happiness and joy involves working on their relationship with God. Within this book you will find writings from: Pope Benedict XVI, The Second Vatican Council, Richard Gula, SS, Pope Paul VI, Ronald Rohlheiser, Erich Maria Remarque, Pope John Paul II, The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops.
