To sell property and casualty insurance, you need to obtain a property/casualty license. Every state sets its own rules for insurance licensing. In New York, for example, you have to undergo a criminal background check, take an accredited licensing class, and then pass the state insurance test. In many states, having the license to sell property and casualty coverage won't entitle you to sell life insurance or health insurance - those require a separate licensing path. This book might be what you have been looking for. I've detailed out methods, rebuttals, tips, and techniques to help. This book answers a lot of common questions I receive from Agents. It's tougher now than ever to compete as an insurance agent. Give it a read and let me know what you think.
